

Highly motivated individual looking for web development experience. A background in biotech research and facilities management has helped develop critical thinking, novel problem-solving skills and experience working with contractors, customers and coworkers on a wide variety of issues.

10/18 – Present	Traveltrust	Encinitas, CA
-----------------	-------------	---------------

- Hiring and collaborating with contractors related to building maintenance
- Touring and helping with renting out office space and to prospective clients
- Filing and tracking spending related to contractors and business expenses
- Customer service interaction, minor repairs and alterations to rented offices

06/16-08/17	Biospyder.	Carlsbad, CA
-------------	------------	--------------

- Optimizing experimental gene assay detecting gene expression based on environmental factors surrounding the cell sample
- Developing and troubleshooting novel assays for gene expression detection
- Practice with properly intaking and tracking new samples from clients

08/11 – 08/14 University of Arizona Tucson, AZ

- Focus in science, technology, health and society
- Organic and analytical chemistry lab experience

- HTML
- CSS
- Javascript
- cURL